

When Easy Rider finally hit the cinemas in the UK, Catford Odeon in south east London recruited some local bikers to advertise the film. Chris Razzell (2nd left on the back of his mate's Triumph T120) says it's a bit embarrassing now. We think it's a bit wonderful.

John O'Hara of Pitstop Paint is probably best known to you for his airbrush work, but he's rather good with a pencil, too.

Top custom motorcycle builder, Grub of Black Market Customs, looking rather pleased with himself—as well he might, having just married the lovely Dani only minutes before. Congratulations to you both.

Flea, the Queen of Rocket Bobs Cycles, with some of the trophies she's won. She builds all the bikes with her own paws, you know.

Want to see your pics here? Send them to Rogues Gallery, 100% Biker, The Old School, Higher Kinnerton, Chester, CH4 9AJ, UK or email them to editor@100-biker.com